Friday, March 27, 2015
10 a.m.
Meet at admissions lobby, 1 Science Park, Boston.

Challenge your mental faculties with a visit to the Museum of Science to see "Maya: Hidden Worlds Revealed," the largest exhibition of its kind in the United States. Never-before-seen artifacts, hands-on activities, multimedia components, and re-created environments depict the rise and eventual decline of this majestic civilization - including its social, natural, and spiritual realms. You'll experience a cross-section of Mayan life and learn how the Mayan people and their culture endure to this day.

Fees are $27.00 for non-members, in advance, and on-site parking is available for $7.75 for the first hour and $2 per hour following. We are right at the cusp of qualifying for a group rate. Rochelle is negotiating; if we qualify, we will refund the difference (could be up to a $10 refund). Bring a friend!

For signups and to get latest information on the price, call Rochelle Gordon (781 248 6924) or email her at rgordon130@verizon.net.

Waiver of liability is attached; please fill out ahead of time or have with you at the event.
